Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words and phrases: violent squall, Jesus was in the stern, rebuked the wind, Do you not yet have faith, Who then is this

To the point: The storm at sea is both a terrifying natural event and a metaphor for overwhelming difficulties that the Church encounters on its journey of discipleship. In either case Jesus is in the midst of his disciples urging them to greater faith, responding to their fears, and delivering them from danger. The disciples have yet to discover who Jesus is and trust in him; and so do we.

Connecting the Gospel

... to the First Reading: Jesus invites the disciples to “cross to the other side.” During Ordinary Time we journey with Jesus, crossing from where we are to where he leads.

... to experience: Saints and mystics have described the difficulties of their spiritual life using such metaphors as a rocky road, arid desert, and the dark night of the soul. These, and the gospel's image of the storm, remind us that even perfect faith would not spare us from difficulty in following Jesus.

Praying with Next Week's Readings
