Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words & phrases:

woman ... caught in adultery, stand in the middle, one ... without sin, went away one by one, woman before him, do not sin any more

To the point: The scribes and Pharisees brought an adulterous woman to Jesus and “made her stand in the middle.” In their self-righteousness they wished to make an example of her as a grave sinner deserving of death. Ironically, Jesus makes an example of them as sinners: they turned away from him and “went away one by one.” The woman, however, remained with Jesus. Our own work during Lent is like that of the adulterous woman: truthfully face our sinfulness and faithfully remain with Jesus. Though we sin, Jesus only wishes new life for us.

Connecting the Gospel

... to the Second Reading:

Paul admonishes us not to be prisoners of our sinfulness but to strain forward to the new life that lies ahead. This new life is the “supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus” and remaining with him (“be found in him”).

... to experience: When we focus exclusively on our own sinfulness we can easily lose sight of our goodness and God's mercy. Jesus responds even to profound sin with even more profound mercy.

PARISH NEWS

Join us after Mass Easter Sunday for the Knights of Columbus Easter Egg Hunt

All children 12 and under bring your Easter baskets to Mass!

The Parish Pastoral Council needs two new members to serve. Please contact Father Jong or Jay Warfel.

Jesus doesn't just save us from death—he calls us to new life. We see this clearly in today's Gospel, when he not only intervenes to save the life of the woman caught in adultery, but also invites her to a life free of sin and lived for God. Life in Christ, then, isn't primarily about avoiding bad things. It really is an invitation to live a life of abundance by embracing what is good. It's more of a positive proposal for our lives, less of a list of “do not's.” Lent is a time of embracing this invitation to fullness of life by engaging in practices that free us from self-reliance and attachment to sin. Prayer helps us to depend upon God more fully. Penance helps us to loosen the hold of things and habits that can compromise our freedom. And almsgiving frees us from self-preoccupation by taking on the needs of another. How are you doing in each of these areas? If you're looking for an opportunity to engage in almsgiving, please consider supporting our Annual Diocesan Appeal. You'll not only be contributing to our very real needs—you'll also be enabling us to continue Christ's work of inviting others into the fullness of life he offers.
