Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words & phrases:

peace, breathed ... the Holy Spirit, forgive, have life

To the point:

Three times in the gospel the risen Lord addresses the gathered disciples, "Peace be with you. What is this peace he brings? It is a peace that allays fears, empowers forgiveness, and prompts us to accept the reality of suffering and death as doorways to new life. We who believe in him as the gospel bids do not live in fear but in the peace his risen life brings. Though we sin, Jesus only wishes new life for us.

... to experience:

We usually use the term "peace" in reference to absence of war or struggle. The peace of which the gospel speaks, however, can be known even in the midst of war or struggle—because it is a peace that comes to us only through the risen Lord.

Connecting the Gospel ...

... to the Second Reading:

The risen Lord "holds the keys to death." He unlocks the doors to new life not only for himself who is "alive for ever and ever" but also for us.
