Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words & phrases:

Whoever loves me, Father will love, make our dwelling, Holy Spirit. ... will teach you everything, peace I give you, may believe

To the point:

Jesus promises to send us the Holy Spirit who will “teach [us] everything.” The Holy Spirit does not teach us what to believe, but to believe. To believe means to live out of and the Lamb.” The divine the divine indwelling, live out indwelling in us and our of the peace given, live out of believing make us citizens of the mutual exchange of love this city.

... to experience:

Believing is living what the Spirit teaches us.

Connecting the Gospel ...

... to the Second Reading:

The Second Reading describes the heavenly Jerusalem which “gleam[s] with the splendor of God ...

Gifts are most often tangible and the most prized ones satisfy our wants and desires.

Jesus offers us a gift beyond anything we can imagine or desire—his risen presence as the Holy Spirit dwelling within us. This gift satisfies beyond all human expectations.

Jesus lays out quite a challenge in today's Gospel. If you truly love Him, you'll keep His word. But of course, the word of Jesus, his teaching, is so challenging! And we are so weak, fickle and forgetful. How can we be expected to keep His word on our own? It seems like an impossible task. And in a way it is. But thankfully, we're not asked to keep Christ's word all by ourselves. As Jesus says, He will send “the Advocate,” the Holy Spirit, whom “will everything and remind you of all that I told you.” In other words, Christ not only gives the task, but He also gives the means for accomplishing it—His very own Spirit, sent by the Father in Christ's name. Do we rely upon the Spirit in our daily lives, especially in those difficult circumstances when it becomes basically impossible for us to keep Christ's word on our own? There's really no other way! Consider one scenario: supporting our local Church by contributing to the Annual Diocesan Appeal. We know God asks us to support His Church, which sometimes may be hard to do. But, how does it change when we ask for His help, through the Holy Spirit? There's only one way to find out: ask the Holy Spirit for help seeing how God is calling you to support the Church, and then ask Him for the strength to follow through.
