Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words & phrases:

hear his voice, calls ... by name, follow him, recognize his voice, I am the gate, have life ... abundantly

To the point: Jesus states clearly that he came so that his followers might have abundant Life. Jesus uses the metaphor of a caring shepherd and sheep to indicate how his followers might receive that Life: by hearing his voice and their name, by following the Good Shepherd, by recognizing whose voice calls them. Hearing, following, recognizing: we are to open our ears in faith, open our hearts in trust, open our minds in love. This is the way to abundant Life. The Gate is wide open. Will we enter?

... to experience: We encounter gates in many areas of our lives. There are gated communities, entry gates for theater and sporting events, toll gates. These gates separate, close off, keep out. Jesus is the Gate who excludes no one, calls each by name, offers abundant Life.

Connecting the Gospel ...

... to the Second Reading:

The shepherd “walks ahead” (Gospel) of the sheep who are to “follow in his footsteps” (Second Reading). Following Jesus leads to insult, suffering, judgment, and the cross. But it also leads us even further—to abundant Life.

... to experience: We encounter gates in many areas of our lives. There are gated communities, entry gates for theater and sporting events, toll gates. These gates separate, close off, keep out. Jesus is the Gate who excludes no one, calls each by name, offers abundant Life.

PARISH NEWS

The LKG 911 Community Task Force Medical Group has a workshop covering CPR, AED use and Basic First Aid.

When: May 3, 1pm-3pm

Where: Parish Hall

Cost: FREE

This is not for certification, however the outcome from knowing what to do in an emergency would add valuable minutes until medical services arrive. Sign up through the office or email. Contact Teri Oswald for questions at 856-889-4760.

In today's Gospel, Jesus makes clear how different he is from other religious leaders: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). He is the good shepherd, and our Annual Diocesan Appeal exists so that more might find comfort in His fold. We, His sheep, have His voice to guide us. In moments of darkness, He guides us. He gives us clarity, peace, and confidence as His peace is more potent than any earthly trouble. Please consider supporting our Appeal so we can help other souls gain peace.

Please use this list to pray for those who are in need. May we all lift one another up in prayer.
