Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Focusing the Gospel

Key words & phrases:

Fear no one, speak, proclaim, do not be afraid. kill the body, you are worth more, I will acknowledge

To the point: Jesus tells the Twelve (and us) that acknowledging him and doing his work will not be easy. This mission ought not be undertaken lightly because there will be opposition. Neither, however, ought the mission be undertaken with trepidation, because God does not abandon us. Forces will oppose this mission, but a promise of divine care will sustain us. Faithful disciples will be named in eternity.

Connecting the Gospel ... to the First Reading: Jesus' words in the Gospel are particularized in the life of Jeremiah. Because he was faithful in proclaiming God's word (he was persecuted, imprisoned, and threatened with death), Jeremiah was protected and sustained by God.

... to experience:

People that serve the greater good, for example, firefighters, police, Doctors without Borders, foreign missionaries, etc, serve the mission of Christ. The greatest good that we all serve is the mission of Christ.
