We welcome all visitors & new parishioners to our parish family. Frequent part-time attendees are encouraged to register. Registration forms are located in the narthex.

Mission Statement:

We are people of God under the patronage of Saint Peter the Apostle and are called to be active followers of Jesus Christ. As members of the Body of Christ on earth, we gather for worship around the word of God and celebration of the Eucharist. We commit ourselves to each other in Faith, in Hope, and in Love. We, as an adult family of believers, are uniquely positioned in this time of our life with the time, talent and energy to bring the message of Jesus to our Community with the help of the Holy Spirit through testimony, example, hospitality and service.

Study of the Readings

Background on the Gospel

Reading John 13:31-33a,34-35

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper.

John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas. Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This theme continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show.

John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts of the Apostles: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily, making small and large sacrifices for others.

Paul is warned about the Jerusalem Mob. First Reading Acts 14:21-27

PARISH NEWS

Over the next few weeks, St. Peter the Apostle parish will be conducting a professionally executed and confidential Feasibility Study to determine if we can conduct a capital campaign to raise funds to support a renovation project of our parish facilities. The Feasibility Study will test support for our case for fund-raising as was explained recently at Mass by the ZMM architectural firm and the potential timetable for a campaign. The Feasibility Study process includes confidential one-on-one interviews, a parish Town Hall meeting, and an online survey. The Final Study Report will provide our parish leadership with the information we need to make a prudent and informed decision on what next steps should be taken. Greater Mission, a Catholic development services firm, is conducting the feasibility study over the next several weeks. The data they gather will be confidential and reported to us in an aggregate report of input and opinion. Greater Mission will provide professional recommendations on next steps. An Executive Summary of the Study Report will be published in the parish bulletin and a full copy of the report will be posted on the parish website so that there is full transparency about the Feasibility Study results.

Father Jong is blessing boats on Saturday, May 24 from 12 noon until 2:00 pm. A boat will be in front of Watersview Restaurant at Eaton Ferry Bridge with a large sign. All boats and personal watercraft are welcome. Please tell your neighbors and friends.

Call the office to schedule a visit with our pastoral care of the sick volunteer, who can visit the homebound, those in the hospital or nursing home, provide transportation for doctor appointments, companionship and spiritual support. The minister of care can bring communion and pray with you.
